

Howitt Middle School Takes the NER Donor Path Challenge

The Howitt Middle School Future Corps Club, and co-advisors Patricia Iadanza-D'Amelio and Debra Cammarata, purchased a Campus Donor Path brick for Canine Companions for Independence. Canine Companions for Independence is an extraordinary non-profit organization that trains and provides service dogs to enhance the lives of people with disabilities.

On Wednesday, April 6th, 2011, the members of the Future Corps Club presented this remarkable association with a facsimile of the brick and its future inscription to this service organization to help provide companion dogs to children and adults in need of assistance.

The lasting memory of this fine organization will be one of the 125 bricks sold and located at the Northeast regional Center in Medford, New York.
